PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Happy Holidays!

Our Holiday show is in full swing! Come visit and shop our unique handmade gifts and art. Take the chill off with a cup of coffee and chase away the winter blues while chatting with other members and artists.

We've also got great classes and workshops available and as always open studio on Wednesday mornings and evenings. So take a little time out from the hustle and bustle, and "chill" with us this December. You and your friends are always welcome!

You will be seeing our Annual Appeal again soon. I'd like to thank all of you who have opened your heart and your wallet to help support NAL throughout these difficult times... We are still in need this year, so please give if you can. We have a lot coming in the new year, with new opportunities for all members. So bring it on 2022!! We are ready for you!

Wishing Peace on Earth, Good Health and Phenomenal Art to All!

Your pres. Sally Sharp

BOARD NOTES

HAPPY HOLIDAYS!!

This month's Board meeting will be a short meeting with a "dutch treat" meal for the holidays on Sunday Dec. 5. For more information call NAL. Agenda and/ or minutes available upon request.

New Furnace has been installed and now we need a new Refrigerator! The list goes on.... Grants and sponsorships/ donations are being sought. The classroom and basement are currently being cleaned and organized. Any help is always appreciated.

HOLIDAY SHOW—GALLERY OF GIFTS

Holiday Gifts for everyone—small, big,
 short, tall, young, and young at heart.
 Everyone is welcome in our friendly environment.

You can find handmade gifts for the whole family, friends, co-workers and your tree. We also have gifts for the artist in your life. Aprons, portfolios and bags made from past Riverwalk Fine Art Fair Banners. Your artist will love them, and your purchase will help support the Art League.

IT IS OUR HONOR TO PRESENT YOU NAL'S LONG-TIME MEMBERS

Ms. Lela Luetger

Lela became a member in 1982 and immediately got involved with Naperville Art League. She was a young wife and mother of a toddler at the time she began. As an active member she joined the Social Committee, responsible for parties, openings, and events. That started her off on the long road of NAL board involvement, and all things NAL!

(More about Lela on the website.)

Thank you Lela for your hard work and dedication for NAL!
