Instructor: Cynthia Boudreau

Sat., Dec. 5

9:00 am—4:00 pm

Res. $60.00 / Non-Res. $90

High School and Adult

Min. 3 / Max. 8

Do you love those darling cloche hats that you've seen on Downton Abbey? Or perhaps you would rather create a one of a kind vessel to hold a lovely orchid for your home? This class will teach you the technique of dry and wet felting to make either one of these items. For the hat, you will shape it on your own head so it's a perfect fit! For the vessel, please bring a favorite vase or piece of pottery to pull the wool shape over (those glass vases you may have from flower deliveries of the past are perfect). You will leave with the completed hat or vessel which will dry at home. A $40.00 material fee payable to the teacher will be collected at the time of the class. (Bring a light lunch or snack)

Students to bring: 2 large towels, 1 plastic grocery bag, hat block (if you have one) and want to make a hat; vase shape if you plan to make a vessel. Instructor will bring all other materials. At the time of registration, please email naperartleague@aol.com to indicate which item you plan to make: hat or vessel, and your color palette of choice, up to 3 colors.

Example: I would like to make a hat in black, grey and red.
Example: I would like to make a vessel in shades of green.
