

Susie Long

I joined the Naperville Art League in the 1970's. I took oil, palette knife and watercolor lessons from different Art League teachers who were very good teachers. Enjoyed learning new painting techniques and meeting other members. I had fun volunteering for various Art League events.

